Australian lure Coursing Ass

At the AGM the QLCA voted to join the ALCA.

Why has the QLCA joined the ALCA ?

- 1 The ALCA has very similar out looks to the QLCA.
- 2 The ALCA treats all Breeds of dogs as equals including cross breeds, so it doesn't matter if it is a Greyhound, Poodle, Papillion or a cross breed all dogs can obtaine the same certificates eg Lure coursing field champion, Lure courser of Merit etc
- 3 The judging system is very similar to the QLCA system
- 4 The QLCA will still retain its yearly points system, and grading points
- 5 The ALCA titles will start from next year. You will not have to start again, points gained will carry over.

Script for endurance races

These competitions are held in August and September of each year and aim to test the endurance of the highest performing dogs in each of the categories.

To be eligible for these events , dogs must attend three of the six qualifying meets. A dog must have a minimum score of 150 in each of the qualifying meetings. The top three qualifying dogs(calculated on the top three scores) are invited to compete with the next two qualifying dogs being invited as reserves.

The 2023 winner is the Saluki, Cherie

Shanett trophy

This endurance event is for all registered breeds other than sighthounds.

The winner this year is the Peruvian Hairless, Eddie

The winner this year is Staffy X, Chewie

Script for the Perpetual Trophies

The perpetual trophies were donated by past members of the club to recognise outstanding achievement, on the basis of average and overall scores throughout the year.

There are 15 trophies in all, and the club will be awarding 13 tonight.

Normally the club awards certificates to each winner, but due to the good response to the raffle, we are awarding trophies as a thankyou to our members.

Saronet Trophy

for the most improved novice goes to Nala DaneXLAB who started off with 87 and after 3 runs is scoring 170 +...This dog has certainly figured out what Coursing is all about and will go into the champion circle this year for sure.

Totlea Park Trophy

for the most improved Unregistered/Mixed Breed goes to Indie the Greyhound X with an average score of 175 .. which is pretty good for a newtimer. This dog has a big future in Lure Coursing.

Kuraby Trophy

Top Unregistered/Mixed Breed goes to Miley the Beagle, with an overall score of 1568. A very focused dog that leads the way for the scenthounds.

Aristat Trophy

Top Registered breeds other than hounds goes to Valkyrie the Labrador with an overall score of 1259. This dog never puts a foot wrong. Powerful, keen, and relentless..everything you'd want in a working gundog.

Pepsi Memorial Trophy

Bunya Kennels Trophy

Top Terrier average score goes to Border Terrier Chloe with an average score of 171 which is a very good score for an elderly dog. Chloe has won most of the perpetual trophies in her career

Toomba Trophy

Top Rhodesian Ridgeback goes to Sarsha with an overall score of 986, closely followed by Hugo on 842, and Jazzy with 836. It's good to see the Ridgebacks showing what they are made of in the hound group.

Ahmadi Trophy

Top Saluki overall score goes to Sonnie with an overall score of 1287. This trophy is open to both males and females but because females usually have 3 months off due to being in season, the following trophy, the Maureen Mannix Trophy is reserved for females.

Maureen Mannix Trophy for the top saluki bitch overall score goes to Cherie with an overall score of 1242.

Terry Cole trophy

This trophy was donated by Terry who recently passed away.

Originally it was for Kelpies but we think Terry would be pleased to have it recognise excellence in all working dog breeds.

Top Overall score for working dogs goes to Bently with an overall score of 1206, a consistent high scorer throughout the year.

Sarona trophy

Champions of Champions, open to field champions only. Top overall score goes to Saluki Sonnie with a score of 1287

Ian Smith Trophy,

Top overall score open to all dogs, registered and unregistered, goes to the Beagle Miley with an overall score of 1568, a very consistent running dog with a big future.
